

Baltic Student Conference “Bridges in the Baltics” (Stockholm, 2017)

Call for Papers

Bridges in the Baltics
Fifth Baltic Student Conference
Stockholm University

The Institute for Baltic Studies at Stockholm University and University of Tartu organize the Fifth Baltic Student Conference "Bridges in the Baltics", which takes place in Stockholm (Sweden) on October 6th – 7th 2017.

The aim of the conference is to bring together students from different countries who are engaged in the Baltic studies, to give them the possibility to meet, present their academic work, learn from each other and make new contacts. The conference welcomes everyone who is currently pursuing a Bachelor's, Master's or PhD degree at any university in the Baltic states or elsewhere.

The conference welcomes proposals concerning any of the following aspects of the society and culture of the Baltic countries:

- language and linguistics
- literature, folklore and arts
- cultural and biographical studies
- media, film and communication
- history and memory

The working languages of the conference are Estonian, Latvian, Lithuanian, English and Swedish. Everyone is welcome to give their presentation in any language mentioned above; however, the abstract and presentation slides are supposed to be in English.

Please send your abstract (not exceeding 200 words) and a short CV including personal details, education and academic interests (not exceeding one page) until June 1st to Frederik Bissinger:

frederik.bissinger@balt.su.se

Welcome to Stockholm!
