BRIDGES IN THE BALTICS

4-5 OCTOBER 2024

VILNIUS UNIVERSITY (LITHUANIA)

Call for papers

Institute for the Languages and Cultures of the Baltic in Vilnius University invites you to the 11th Baltic Student Conference “Bridges in the Baltics” to be held on October 4–5, 2024, in Vilnius.

The aim of the conference is to bring together students whose studies and research focus on the languages or culture of the three Baltic States, to give them the possibility to meet their peers from other countries and universities, to present their academic work and interests, to learn from each other and to make new contacts. The conference welcomes everyone who is currently pursuing a Bachelor’s, Master’s or PhD degree at any university in the Baltic States or elsewhere.

The conference welcomes proposals concerning any of the following aspects of the Baltic countries:

- language and literature
- history, folklore and culture
- arts, film and music
- cultural, biographical and gender studies
- modern technology and innovation in the Baltic societies
- political and social developments in the Baltic region

The working languages of the conference are Lithuanian, Latvian, Estonian and English. Everyone is welcome to give their presentation in any language mentioned above and we encourage using the languages of the Baltic States. However, the abstract and presentation slides should be in English.

Please complete the application form (<https://forms.gle/h9j5QoeqsJXWbGx68>) providing the registration data and your abstract (not exceeding 200 words without references) by July 1st. Letters of acceptance will be sent by July 10th. Participation is free of charge.

Please forward this message on to your colleagues who may be interested in attending!

We are looking forward to seeing you in Vilnius!
